

I. C. C. HOLDS UP "DRY LAND" RATES

Railroads operating in the territory affected by the so-called "dry land" freight rate adjustment, have been ordered by the interstate commerce commission to suspend until April 14, 1921, the new tariffs they were prepared to put into effect on Wednesday.

The official order of the commission had not been received Thursday, but a telegram received Wednesday by Joe Hattendorf, general agent for the Illinois Central railroad, from Commissioner McGinty, at Washington, announced the suspension of the rates.

The carriers and shippers are both preparing for another hearing before the commission. It is possible that the new hearings may be concluded in time for the new rates, if sustained, to go into effect before April 14, but it is considered more than likely that another postponement will be granted before the schedules are finally acted upon.

Many shippers are now hopeful that the tariffs prepared upon the "dry land" basis will be canceled entirely.

Representatives of the grain interests from Kansas City, New Orleans, Toledo and other grain centers were in conference here Thursday with J. E. McGinty, commissioner of the day and grain division of the Memphis Merchants' exchange, and other local traffic men, preliminary to a hearing at Louisville Thursday on the proposed grain rates.

The tentative rates prepared by the carriers on grain, will prove a serious blow to the Louisville market. It is contended, and local interests are preparing to make a hard fight against their adoption. Mr. McGinty will leave Thursday night for Louisville to represent local grain interests.

Clever Memphis Girl Now Member Of Creators Troupe

Memphis was splendidly represented in the colorful chorus of "Car-men" at the Lyric theater, Wednesday night. Mrs. Henry Harnisch, of 553 Tate street, who possesses a soprano voice of rare dramatic power and singular flexibility and color, has joined Signor Creators' aggregation, and is now on tour making the first stop in Greenville, Miss.

Mrs. Harnisch comes of a family prominent in social and business circles. Possessing a voice of rare beauty she went to New York and studied under Sappho and Cotchi, who both predicted a great future for their brilliant pupil.

"I am delighted with the opportunity of being with such a gifted maestro as Signor Creators," she declared. "I have been hoping for such an opening and was negotiating with Signor Scotti, but when Creators heard my voice he at once made me an offer and I at once accepted."

With him will get practical training that will be of great help to me, and I will also have the opportunity to observe the methods of other singers. I am delighted and intend to make Memphis proud of me."

Mrs. Harnisch was easily recognized by her friends and admirers. She was the only member of the chorus that wore a black shawl overlaid with gray colored flowers.

AUTO STRIKES WOMAN.

S. S. Brown, negro, 1233 Saxon avenue, is being held by police on a charge of reckless driving for striking Miss Alma Chandler, 23, 210 South Wellington street, at Wellington and Beale Wednesday night. Miss Chandler sustained a broken ankle, possibly broken hip bone and body bruises when struck by a car which Brown was driving. She was crossing Wellington street and was run down without warning. Witnesses say Brown deserted his car. Police later caught him.

Plan Xmas Fun For Soldiers At Marine Hospital

The Marine hospital is planning to provide the disabled soldiers of the institution with a Christmas tree, a dinner and an entertainment on Christmas day.

The Eastern Star will provide a tree and an entertainment Christmas evening. The Knights of Columbus will deliver packages to the inmates of the institution, and the American Legion will also have a part in providing gifts for the disabled soldiers.

The only thing lacking to make the occasion ideal is suitable decorations. Persons who can furnish holly, mistletoe or flowers of any description, that will help to brighten the institution for the occasion, are requested to take them to the hospital, where the gifts will be greatly appreciated.

Approves Street Car Rerouting

Horace Johnson, commissioner of public utilities, grounds and buildings, is in receipt of a letter from Millard Nall, prominent real estate dealer, in which Mr. Nall gives his qualified approval to the rerouting of street cars along Third street.

Mr. Nall points that the proposed rerouting will save time for patrons of the street cars, will result in an improvement of property along Third and Second streets and the various cross streets, without injury to property or merchants on Main street, and will facilitate the transaction of business in the downtown districts. He commends Commissioner Johnson for the prominent part the latter has played in the rerouting program.

"Owing to the study Mr. Nall has given real estate values, his opinions are regarded as carrying weight on this subject."

CHURCH MUDDLE NOW OUT OF COURT

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Insufficient evidence upon which to base criminal action is reported by Assistant District Attorney Rorke in closing an investigation into charges made by Campbell McCulloch, former first reader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, this city, who declared that certain papers had been stolen from his desk and were being used against him. Forty persons, many of them members of the church, were examined by Mr. Rorke, at McCulloch's instigation.

TRAFFIC CLUB LUNCHEON WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

All members and friends of the Memphis Traffic club are urged to attend the regular monthly luncheon at the Hotel Chicago, at 12:30 p.m. Saturday. The committee on arrangements has provided a program of great interest. The club now has 200 members and hopes to have 500 members to start the new year. Members are determined to make the club the largest traffic organization in the South.

J. M. Walsh, president of the club, has appointed H. W. Stigler, general agent for the Fort Smith & Western, and the Gulf, Florida & Alabama railroads, to represent the local traffic club at the annual banquet of the Chicago Traffic club. Mr. Stigler left for Chicago Wednesday night.
